Designed with both flexibility and comfort in mind, this two-story home offers a layout that adapts beautifully to everyday living. A charming front porch welcomes you inside, where a private study sits just off the foyer—ideal for working from home or creating a quiet retreat. Toward the rear of the home, the main living spaces open into a bright and inviting arrangement. The kitchen, complete with a central island and large pantry, flows effortlessly into the dining area and spacious family room—perfect for hosting or simply enjoying time together. Add a cathedral ceiling to make the family room even more spacious. An optional outdoor living extension enhances the connection to the backyard. Conveniently located on the main level, the owner's suite provides a peaceful escape with a well-appointed bath and generous closet space, offering the ease of first-floor living. Upstairs, a versatile loft creates an additional gathering space, complemented by two secondary bedrooms and a full bath—ideal for family members or guests seeking privacy.
